

Butterfly Kisses...

We often learn the most from our children. Some time ago, a friend of mine punished his 3-year-old daughter for wasting a roll of gold wrapping paper. Money was tight and he became infuriated when the child tried to decorate a box to put under the tree on Christmas Eve. Nevertheless, the little girl brought the gift to her father Christmas morning and said, "This is for you, Daddy." He was embarrassed by his earlier over reaction, but his anger flared again when he found that the box was empty. He scolded her, "Don't you know that when you give someone a present, there's suppose to be something inside it?" The little girl looked up at him with tears in her eyes and said, "Oh, Daddy, it's not empty; I blew kisses into the box for you, Daddy." The father was crushed. He put his arm around the little girl and begged for her forgiveness. My friend told me that he kept the box by his bed for years. Whenever he would get discouraged, he would just take out an imaginary kiss and remember the love of the child who'd put it there.

Truly, each of us as parents and even future parents have had a gold container filled with unconditional love and kisses from our children and children to be. There is no more precious possession anyone can hold. Don't forget to tell your children that you love them every chance you get...and remember those Butterfly Kisses!

The Emmaus Experience!

As they huddled together in the darkened room, they spoke only in hushed tones, fearing that at any moment there would be a banging on the locked door. The last day and a half had brought their world crashing down around them into abysmal dismay! Their Leader had been falsely accused, beaten and hung on a cross. This same thing could happen to them because they had been seen with Him every day over the last three years. They had been so sure that He was the one who would crush the Roman occupation and give Israel their freedom. But it was not to be, and so here they were in the dark, not even going for food, because of the terror that they too might be beaten with a cat-of-nine-tails and crucified.

The next day, seven miles from Jerusalem, two men were walking along, discussing the terrible events of the last three days. These two men had also been hoping that He Who had been crucified was going to redeem Israel. Suddenly a Man appeared along the road and began walking with them. He talked of the fact that the One called Christ had to suffer in order to enter into His glory, and that the prophecies of this event, spoken of by the prophets had been fulfilled. When they stopped for the night, He stayed with them and as they ate and He blessed the bread, their eyes were opened - JESUS, Himself, in the flesh, was talking and eating with them! And then INSTANTLY, He was gone! Immediately the two men hurried to Jerusalem and found the eleven disciples in hiding. And while they were relaying everything that the Visitor had told them, JESUS stood in the room with them! JESUS' first declaration to His disciples when He appeared to them was "Peace be with you!" That is what JESUS, your Redeemer is saying to you TODAY: "Peace be with you!"

JESUS appeared to over 500 people after His resurrection, in His new body, appearing at will and walking through closed doors, reassuring them that He was alive and well. As JESUS breathed upon His friends in that room (remember, they had all fled before Him in the garden), He introduced Holy Spirit to them. And then He said a very interesting thing: "If you forgive the sins of any, their sins have been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained" (John 20:23). What JESUS is saying here is explained in Mark 2:10: "But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" - He was saying in essence, "I have given My authority to forgive sins to you. Paul confirms this principle in II Corinthians 2:10, "If you freely forgive anyone for anything, then I also forgive him. And if I have forgiven anything, I do so for you before the face of Christ, so that we are not unwittingly opening ourselves to satan's schemes." This Authority only comes when you have received Holy Spirit and are being led by Him. Let's say, for example, if someone takes something that belongs to you and when you find out or if this thief comes to you and admits that he took your property and you say, "I forgive you," then he has been forgiven. JESUS Wants Your Heart!

Make America Great Again! SO GET IT RIGHT!

The U.S. Postal Service was established in 1775; you have had 248 years to get it right and it is broke. Now a stamp costs .60 cents - it was .05 cents in 1968.

Social Security was established in 1935. You have had 88 years to get it right and it is broke. It wouldn't be so broke if you didn't continue to steal the people's money. Get it right!

The war on poverty started in 1964. You have had 57 years to get it right; it never went anywhere and you steal $1,000,000,000 of the taxpayer's money every year giving it to "the poor." Medicare and Medicaid were established in 1965; you have had 58 years to get it right and they are broke, giving a huge chunk to illegal aliens. So get it right!

The Department of Energy was created in 1977 to lesson our dependence on foreign oil. It now has 16,000 employees with a budget of $24,000,000 a year and we import more oil than ever before. We know we have resources to make us energy independent; Pres. Trump proved that in 4 years. Get it right!

You have failed in every "government service" you have shoved down our throats while overspending our tax dollars. We now have a president that promised to "Build Back Better" and lies about the previous administration every time he opens his mouth. And he wants Americans to believe that he and his cronies can be trusted with a government-run anything?

"Drain the swamp" is still on the breath of every conservative American who loves their country....it's possible if we only Believe! 2024 is coming!

Sam Walton Had A Vision!

Sam Walton learned at a very early age that it was important for kids to help provide for the home, to be givers rather than takers. He joined a Bible club in college. Walton realized while serving in the army, that he wanted to go into retailing and to go into business for himself. He'd done everything else in his life - menial labor, milking cows, waiting tables and washing dishes.

He joined J. C. Penney as a management trainee in Des Moines, Iowa, three days after graduating from college. After being paid $75 a month, approximately 18 months with J. C. Penney, he resigned in 1942 in anticipation of being inducted into the military for service in World War II. Walton joined the military in the U.S. Army Intelligence Corps, supervising security at aircraft plants and eventually reached the rank of captain. In 1945, after leaving the military, Walton took over management of his first variety store at the age of 26. With the help of a $20,000 loan from his father-in-law, plus $5,000 he had saved from his time in the Army, Walton purchased a Ben Franklin variety store in Newport, Arkansas.

Sam Walton was a fanatic in wanting to get this vision fulfilled, and he worked hard. He believed in everyday prices, he believed in meeting the needs of consumers...and he did it well. He cut costs relentlessly. He shared rooms with his senior executives when he stayed in hotels, much to their chagrin. He did everything he could to cut costs. But he did it to help himself, to make more money, to be wealthier, in order to help the society he lived in.

Americans spend $36,000,000 at Walmart every hour of every day; this works out to be $20,928 profit every minute. Walmart will sell more from January 1 - St. Patrick's Day than Target sells all year. Walmart is bigger than Home Depot, Kroger, Target, Costco combined, and it sells more food than Kroger and Safeway combined...and they did it in only 15 years. What's more, Walmart now sells more food than any other store in the world! During this period, 31 big supermarket chains sought bankruptcy.

Walmart has approximately 3,900 stores in the USA of which 1906 are Super Centers; this is 1,000 more than it had 5 years ago. 90% of all Americans live within 15 miles of a Walmart. Walmart employs 1.6 million people, is the world's largest private employer...and most speak English. Great Vision, Sam Walton!

Sam and Helen Walton

Maybe we should hire the guys who run Walmart to fix the U.S. economy.

The first Walmart in Bentonville, Arkansas is now a museum.

"I am crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live but Christ Who lives in me...and the life I live in the flesh, I live by the Faith of the Son of GOD Who loved me and gave His life for me!" (Galatians 2:20)

The Emmaus Experience...

Another important principle that JESUS left the Body of Christ is this:

"Be not unbelieving but believing...blessed are those who did not see and yet believed!"

(John 20:29)

Mark 16:14 tells us that JESUS rebuked the disciples for their unbelief and hardness of heart because they had been unbelieving and confused about His resurrection. But instead of berating them, He declared, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. He who has believed and has been baptized shall be saved; but he who has disbelieved shall be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who have believed: In My Name - (1) they will cast out demons, (2) they will speak with new tongues, (3) they will pick up serpents (they will not be afraid of the devil), (4) if they drink any poison— any deadly virus or infection, it shall not hurt them, and (5) they will lay hands on the sick and they will recover." What you see here is the Authority in action that you, as a Believer in JESUS Christ have. You need not be afraid of anything! He has given you Authority over ALL the power of the enemy (Luke 10:19). In the last forty days of JESUS' earthly ministry, He opened the disciples' minds to understand the Scriptures, telling them (and US) that salvation should be proclaimed, in His Name, to all the nations. Go forth, in boldness, knowing that JESUS is going with you - "Lo, I AM with you always, even to the end of the age!"

He is alive and I'm forgiven...Heaven's gates are open wide!

Home Of Refuge Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

We are going through here in Peru, what so many other countries around the world are going through...unrest in our government - changes in leadership, unrest and protestors blocking roads. I, Tony, had to walk roughly 30 miles one day last month just to arrive at the orphanage when traveling from Cusco to Cardompata. We are experiencing gas shortages, which forces us to buy firewood in order to cook at the Home of Refuge. Food prices have doubled and at least 58 people have perished due to the rioting in the streets of Peru.

We gratefully appreciate your prayers because your prayer covering is what keeps this Home of Refuge safe from the enemy forces. Amidst all the unrest, we continue to rescue those in need. Our most recent is 75-year-old Santusa, pictured here with Rose. She has three grown children, but none of them are interested in caring for their mother. But she has a home now with us, so she no longer has to fend for herself - THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT! We are so grateful for you and your faithful giving!

Love, Tony and Rosa - Home of Refuge - Peru
