America the Beautiful!

Have you ever spent the late afternoon watching the purple shadows deepen in the Arizona desert...or seen a herd of elk plow their way through waist deep snow on a cold Colorado dome? Did you ever see the sun go down in Hawaii, or set behind the mighty Rocky Mountains...or see the stormy waves break over the rock-bound coast of Maine? Or have you ever see an eagle fly up out of the mists of Alaska...or a big October moon hanging full over the still Dakota badlands?

Did you ever drink the water from a gurgling brook in Utah, or stand on the mountain above the deep cavern of the Black Canyon of the Gunnison, or see the eagles fly majestically over the Wyoming prairie? Have you seen the faces on Mount Rushmore or stood at the Vietnam Memorial? Have you ever crossed the mighty Mississippi, or been to the Daddy of them all in Cheyenne, Wyoming? Did you ever see the early morning dew sparkling on Kentucky blue grass, or the wind stir the wheat fields on a hot Kansas afternoon...or drive down those lonely stretches of Route 66?

Have you ever heard the church bells peal their call to worship on a cool, early Sunday, in some small town in the deep south? This then is America! The land GOD blesses with everything and no Eiffel Tower, no Taj Mahal, no Alps, no Andes, nor Royal Palace, can rival her awesome beauty! She is America the Free...America the Mighty...America the Beautiful! (Charlie Daniels)

"Our GOD is an awesome GOD, He reigns from heaven above with Wisdom, Power, and Love, our GOD is an awesome GOD! And when the sky was starless in the void of the night, He spoke into the darkness and created the light! Judgement and wrath He poured out on Sodom; Mercy and Grace He gave us at the cross....I hope that we have not too quickly forgotten that Our GOD Is An Awesome GOD!" (Michael W. Smith)

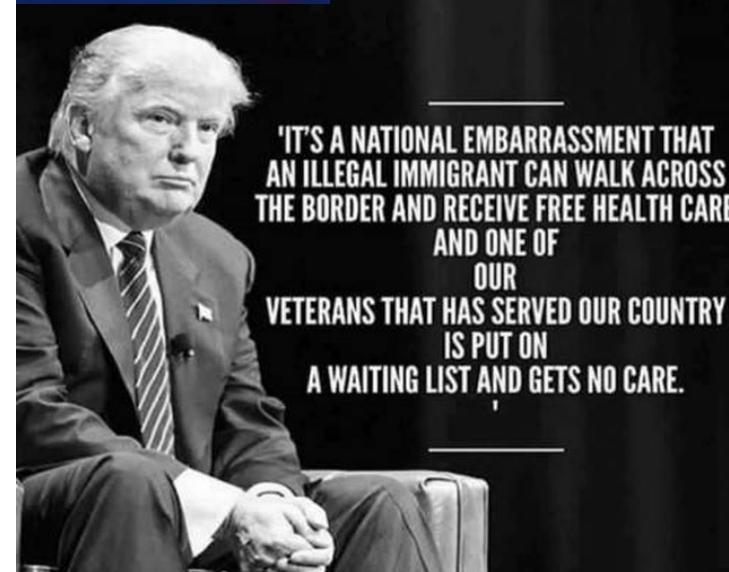

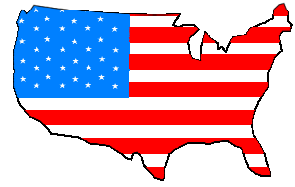

"I pledge Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, UNDER GOD, indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all!"

"One Nation...UNDER GOD!"

"GOD bless America, my home.. sweet home!"

IT'S A NATIONAL EMBARRASSMENT THAT AN ILLEGAL IMMIGRANT CAN WALK ACROSS THE BORDER AND RECEIVE FREE HEALTH CARE AND ONE OF OUR VETERANS THAT HAS SERVED OUR COUNTRY IS PUT ON A WAITING LIST AND GETS NO CARE.

FEELINGS FROM THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF
Understand the weight of this image. This soldier lost both of his arms. The feeling of a handshake is lost to him. Trump realized this, and thus, touched his face so he can feel the human connection. Pres. Trump gave up a billionaire lifestyle so he and his family could be insulted, dragged through the mud, and lied about on a daily basis. All to save the country and people he loves! The "Far-Left Democrats" will never comprehend, or understand this.... (Article submitted by Dottie Urban)

PRAISE REPORT...

Stephanie Fuchsberger
Big Cove, Alabama

Dear Barbara, Sterling graduated this year. He has worked so hard and GOD has truly blessed the "work of his hands" (Deuteronomy 16:15; Psalm 90:17). He was accepted to Georgia Tech and Auburn University; he chose Auburn, as we have covered this decision with much prayer. I have to tell you that GOD has orchestrated Sterling receiving two amazing merit-based scholarships from Auburn - one covering all of his tuition and the other one - $4500 per year - for housing, etc. He is still waiting to hear about a couple more Auburn scholarships. I get tears in my eyes when I remember Derin putting him up on a chair and praying for him when he was 5!

From August 2004 magazine: "We brought Sterling to you and Derin for prayer. He had been stuttering for two years. We had been praying diligently for months because we felt it was something 'evil' attacking our little boy. We had him memorize Isaiah 54:17 - "That no weapon formed against him shall prosper...." As Derin prayed for Sterling standing on that chair, he commanded that evil, oppressing spirit to leave... and it did!"

Photo on the left is of Sterling at his kindergarten graduation. The stuttering stopped and the anointing destroyed the yoke (Isaiah 10:27). GOD doesn't go just half way either! Sterling will graduate valedictorian of his class. "Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; His love endures forever!" (Psalm 106:1) I just thought I would send this little praise report to you; you are part of this wonderful miracle in our lives and we love you so much!

The Feather Of Peace...

Story submitted by Archie Moody

It was a summer morning in the year 1775, and the sun shone brightly on the little cabin which served as a Meeting House for the Friends of Easton in New York. It was a warm, sunny day, but the hearts of many were troubled. It was a time of strife, and reports came that bands of roving Indians were on the warpath. Even the children knew that something unusual was in the air and sensed that the older and weightier Friends of the Meeting were ill at ease. Zebulon Hoxie, the patriarch of the Meeting, sat with Robert Nisbet, a visiting Friend, who had walked through the forests for several days to meet with them. As Robert rose to speak, he knew well the fear which lay heavily on the hearts of the Easton Friends. They had stayed in their peaceful homes even though their neighbors had all fled to the larger settlements where they hoped for safety from the Indian raids. The visitor spoke: "The Beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long." His voice faltered and then went on, calmly and tenderly: "And how shall the Beloved of the LORD be thus safely covered? Even as the Psalmist says: 'He shall cover thee with His feathers, and under His wings shalt thou trust.' You have done well, Dear Friends, to stay on in your homes, even though all your neighbors have fled, and therefore are these messages sent to you by me. These Promises of covering and of shelter are truly meant for you. Make them your own, and remember the words of the Scriptures, 'Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flies by day.'" The children knew why the stranger had come. Now they knew why their parents were troubled. It was the Indians! Would they really come, and, if they did, were they as terrible as people said? Here and there, a child managed to steal a look through the windows or through the chinks between the logs. Outside, there seemed to be a faint rustling in the bushes, though there was no breeze.

Suddenly, an Indian chief appeared in the doorway, looking with piercing eyes at each Friend in turn to see if there was any weapon present; but the Friends were entirely unarmed. Neither gun nor sword was to be found in any of their dwelling houses, so there could not be any in this peaceful meeting. A moment later, other Indians stood beside their chief, yet the Friends sat on in complete silence. At last, Zebulon Hoxie lifted his head and met the full gaze of the chief; no word was spoken. Minutes passed...the Indian's eyes slowly fell. He signaled to his followers, and each sat silently on a nearby bench. Then began one of the strangest meetings ever held in the Society of Friends. Not a Quaker stirred, and the silent Indians sat peacefully with them. As soon as it began the meeting was soon over, and the Friends greeted their visitors. Then the chief spoke: "Indian come to kill white man. Indian come, see white men all sit quiet: no gun, no arrow, no knife; all quiet, all still, worshipping Great Spirit. Great Spirit is Indian, too. Then Great Spirit say to Indian: 'You must not kill these white men!'" Then the chief took a white feather from one of his arrows and stuck it firmly over the doorway, saying, "Indians all friends when see this feather." Then he turned and, with a sign to the others, led the way into the forest while the Friends watched in silence - except for Robert Nisbet's quiet words, "He shall cover thee with His feathers, and under His wings shalt thou trust." (Psalm 91:4)

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

I want to remind you that when you give to Home of Refuge, it counts as if YOU are here. The Bible says that you receive the same reward...you are in partnership with us and your reward is great! There is nothing that compares to the riches that GOD has in store for those who do His will on earth. Keep sowing, keep praying and keep giving into the Kingdom; it matters! Each time someone gives, their money turns into meals that feed and cares for and sustains precious children...some of whom are established and thriving at the orphanage, some of whom have recently entered and are still raw and healing from their pasts, some of whom are dreaming big dreams for their future and working hard to get an education to make those dreams a reality, and some of whom are beginning to finally grasp the knowledge of JESUS and their own identity in relationship to Him. No matter what stage these children are in, one thing is certain: they now have HOPE for a much better tomorrow! YOUR GIVING has done all of this for them. Without you, we do not have the means to sustain them. They are counting on us, and Rosa and I thank YOU today for being a vital part of meeting their needs. May GOD cause your heart to abound with as much Joy as ours does when we see the impact your giving has in the lives of these children. You are a BLESSING to us! We love you,

Working together for the Kingdom, Tony & Rosa-PERU
